

SPECIAL WRITE-IN ABSENTEE BALLOT
SECRETARY OF STATE
SFN 19022 (09-05)

Special absentee ballot provisions are found in North Dakota Century Code, Section 16.1-07-08.1.

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. A qualified absentee voter may apply at any time in an election year to the county auditor for a special write-in absentee ballot for the general election.
- 2. This special write-in absentee ballot may be used to vote for President or members of the United States Senate and United States House of Representatives.
- 3. In order to qualify for the special write-in absentee ballot a voter must be unable to vote by regular absentee ballot or in person due to requirements of military service or living in isolated or extremely remote areas of the world.

TO THE VOTER: You may vote by writing in a party preference for each office or by writing in a specific candidate for each office. If you write in a party preference your vote will be tallied for the candidate of that political party for the particular office. You do not have to indicate both a party preference and a candidate name. You do not have to vote for all offices.
